

CRUSADER

1954

YOU are all beautiful, O Mary! You are the glory, you are the joy, you are the honor of our people."

— MARIAN PRAYER

— POPE PIUS XII

THE CRUSADER
Catholic Central High School
Muskegon, Michigan
1954

For Our Young People . . .

The Most Rev. Bishop Francis J. Haas of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, whose zeal for education opened opportunities for the youth of the Greater Muskegon area in the erection of the new Catholic Central High School, is shown as he broke ground, May 7, 1951.

Catholic Central became a reality September 8, 1953, when approximately eight-hundred students entered its doors. Bishop Haas died one month before school opened, but his great objective, For Our Young People, a Catholic Education, will continue and flourish for generations to come — a lasting memorial to his untiring zeal.

CORNERSTONE —

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raymond Baker, Vicar General of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, represented Bishop Haas in laying the cornerstone April 2, 1952. Assisting are Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Fraser, Rev. Albert Kehren, executive secretary of the building project of Catholic Central, and Mr. Charles Bebeau, construction superintendent.

. . . A Catholic Education

Foreword

We, the class of 1954, are the trail breakers. The path we cut will in a few years be a broad highway of knowledge. A modern concrete or asphalt highway bears little remembrance of the Indian who first blazed a trail through the virgin forest; yet, this obscure Indian set the direction of the great highway. In time, the class of 1954 like the Indian will be forgotten, but the trail we blaze will still be followed by the future students of Catholic Central.

Now that we have reached the end of our first year at Muskegon Catholic Central, we must ask ourselves what we leave behind us. We are leaving traditions and customs which will be carried on by future generations of Catholic Central students. We have attempted to portray these activities in the Crusader, Catholic Central's first annual.

Those who follow us will break trail into a new tomorrow. It is our hope that the trail we have broken proves true and useful; it is our prayer that the great highway we all follow will lead through time to God's eternity.

—James Guimond

THE MOST REVEREND ALLEN J. BABCOCK

The faculty and students of Catholic Central extend prayerful greetings to the seventh Bishop of the Diocese of Grand Rapids.

You, the Class of 1954, have had a unique privilege and obligation. It has been yours to set in motion many of those school activities that will become the traditions for future generations. How well you have done will be seen only as the years go on.

Your obligations and privileges, however, do not end with graduation. You will forever remain the first class to graduate. You will ever be the vanguard of Catholic Central's alumni. Your life with its successes or its failures will reflect in a special way on all the future classes and graduates.

But because I understand this, your responsibility as our first graduates, and because I have the deepest personal regard for each of you, this prayer will ever be in my heart and on my lips: "May our Lord and His Blessed Mother watch over you in everything you may do in the years to come. May They help you always to manifest those ideals that must fill the minds and hearts of all future graduates of Catholic Central."

Around the Sun

We, the Class of the Marian Year, dedicate this Class Poem, written as a group composition, to Our Lady, whom Pius XII salutes as Queen of the Universe.

I

Inspiration of Crusaders, at your feet
We humbly kneel, as centuries ago
With swords uplifted we looked up to you.
We leveled lances for the Holy Land —
For Bethlehem, Nazareth, Jerusalem.
Strength of Crusaders, give us strength today
Against the bloody crescent of the foe.
Inspiration of Crusaders, pray for us!

II

Madonna of Crusaders, you inspired
Our hearts and hands to glorify your name.
Artists immortalized your mysteries
And built cathedrals from the wealth of earth
To sing your praise in jeweled light and stone.
Our great bells sang their silver songs to you
From shrine to shrine across the countryside.
Madonna of Crusaders, pray for us!

III

Star of Crusaders, once we sailed the seas
To claim new lands for you and for your Son.
We planted names like flowers to honor you
From Maryland to California,
From Guadalupe to your mother's shrine.
Protectress of America, we pray
Guard now the flag we dedicate to you.
Star of Crusaders, pray for us!

IV

Guide of Crusaders, we were pioneers
To this peninsula. Our cause was God;
Our weapon was the cross. With Indians
We sailed the rosary of lakes, and named
Sault Ste. Marie, St. Joseph, and St. John.
We prayed with Marquette on these shores, and built Shelters of pine for Christ. We formed a State.
To make it yours, Our Lady, was our dream.
Guide of Crusaders, pray for us!

V

Queen of Crusaders, we implore your help
As did the dusty files through Palestine.
Like them we battle for a Holy Land,
Not of this earth, but of eternity.
We too must hold the gleaming shield of faith
Against the threatening dangers of the dark.
Mary, we sing your praise in many ways
Along the far blue pathways of the sky;
We follow starlit decades into space
To bear your name this year around the sun.
Queen of Crusaders, pray for us!

Sacred Heart
A lady straight forward and polite.

HELEN MAE MISH
St. Michael
A quick smile — a helpful attitude — ready for the future.

SHIRLEY MAE MOUREAU
St. Joseph
I can be serious, but I'd rather be gay.

AVIS CLARE MITCHELL
St. Joseph
Sixty-two inches of ambition to do well in everything she tries

ANN MOYER
Our Lady of Grace
She's happy-go-lucky, and popular too; her friends are many, and her enemies few.

JOAN MARCIA NACHAZEL
St. Mary
A great one with words.

to Advance the Cause . . .

MARY KATHRYN O'TOOLE
St. Mary
If I do it, I get a lickin', I'll do it.

MARY LOUISE PANYARD
St. Jean
Lively, vibrant charm, many friends.

THOMAS AUGUSTUS PANYARD
St. Jean
A class isn't complete without a leader,
A good time isn't complete without Tom.

VINCENT ANTHONY PAPERELLA
Our Lady of Grace
His giggle is his trademark.

EDWARD DANIEL PAQUIN
A rare combination — mischief, frolic, and fun.

DAVID ANDREW PLOUHAR
St. Mary
Generally speaking, he is generally speaking.

MARY LOU PLUMHOFF
St. Mary
Not as quiet as she may seem.

THOMAS JOSEPH PLYMALE
St. Joseph
Full of fun and mischief too, doing things he shouldn't do.

LAWRENCE EDWARD POINTER
St. Michael, Dennison
He's everybody's friend, and he keeps his trouble to himself.

of the Peaceful Christ . . .

WARREN GILBERT POPP
St. Mary
A little mischief now and then is relished
by the best of men.

JOAN MARIE RAHRIG
St. Joseph
Mighty small and mighty sweet, to be her friend is one big treat.

BONNIE LOUISE RICHIE
St. Jean
Quiet and sweet, her actions speak louder than words.

DOROTHY ANN RIEGLER
St. Joseph
Her mind is here, but her heart is elsewhere.

DORIS JEAN ROSS
St. Mary
She's laughing at this and laughing at that, but no one knows what she's laughing at.

MARY JEAN ROSTAR
Sacred Heart
Studios — maybe, likeable, definitely.

JOAN KATHRYN RUTEMILLER
St. Jean
A good investment would be a penny for her thoughts.

in this Marian Year . . .

JEROME EDWARD ST. AMOUR
St. Mary

Jerry — a generous guy heartwrapped in nonsense.

CAROL JOYCE SCHNIPKE
St. Thomas

If beauty were brains, behold another Solomon.

LOUIS EUGENE SCHULIST
St. Michael

Now for fame and the world is mine.

JUNE MARIE SHELTON
St. Mary

This young lady is quite small, but those that are good aren't always tall.

DOROTHY MARIE SHIELDS
St. Michael

A tiny bit of cheerfulness.

DONNA MAE SIBLEY
St. Joseph

Some think the world was made for fun and frolic; and so does she.

LA VERN HAROLD SIEGEL
St. Mary

I came, I plodded, I graduated.

DONAHUE BERNARD SILVIS
St. Mary

An equal mixture of good humor and sense.

MARGARET MARY SIPOS
St. Mary
Thoughtful and sweet, she lacks not wisdom.

We, the Class of 1954 . . .

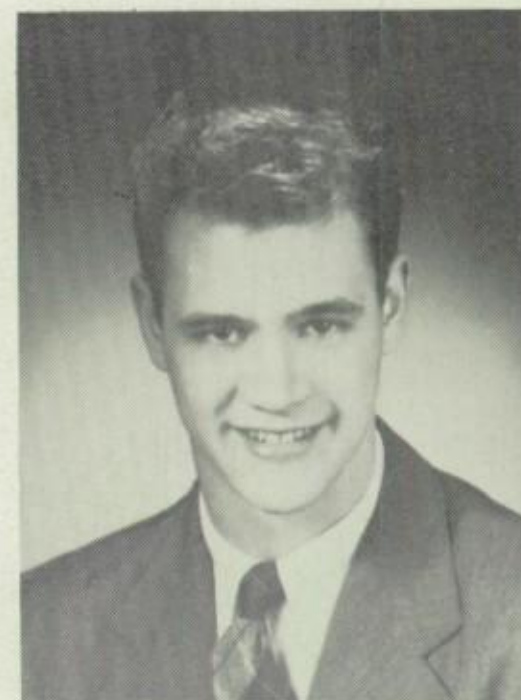

BARBARA JANE SMITH
St. Joseph
"Barb" to her friends — true and loyal.

KEITH THOMAS SOMERS
St. Mary
To know him is to like him, he's everybody's friend.

JOHN LEE STONER
Sacred Heart
Quiet and conservative; serious and sincere.

GERALD EDWARD THOMAS
Sacred Heart
He cares not for study, it weakens his eyes.

THOMAS GREINER STONG
St. Mary
Why hurry, my day will come!

STANLEY RALPH TYLER, JR.
St. Mary
Twelve long years of school have passed,
I'm out to see the world at last.

GRACE JOAN VANDER VEEN
St. Mary
The joys of life become worthwhile beneath the ways — of her winning smile.

DOLORES HELEN WADE
St. Joseph
A treat to her friends with personality plus.

MATTHEW CHARLES YOUNG
St. Mary
Matt's a charmer you can see, but he's devoted to boats and his sailing trophy.

March On!

KARL EDWIN WESTMAN
St. Michael
Who said the best things come in little packages?

GERALD EUGENE ZADEL
Sacred Heart
There are many links in his chain of friendships.

FRANCIS GEORGE WICKSTROM
St. Joseph
"Ho!" what mischief lies behind those eyes!

CHESTER PHILIP ZBOJNIEWICZ
St. Michael
In sports and such he doesn't compete, but without him our class wouldn't be complete.

Catholic Central's first class happily recalls the events of the year.

Graduation At Catholic Central

Graduation, the first at Catholic Central, will be held June 6th at 8 p.m. in the Stadium at the Coopersville. Some of you may ask about the possibility of rain. It is not going to rain June 6th, is our best answer.

Upset

Graduation morning the first to face Commencement will have a Senior Mass for themselves and parents at St. Jean's. Immediately following the Mass there will be a breakfast in the Hall. This last so-called gathering of the Class of 1954, a part of Catholic Central, will include the Class Will, a final message and the lighting of the torches. On June 6th, a new stone in a new building will have been placed. I have been promised that I will tell how we accomplished its task. Christian Americans...

On a Spiritual Plane . . .

Our Retreat Master, Rev. Howard Rallencotter, C.P., as he starts Catholic Central off on its first Retreat. His inspiring conferences, his graphic chalk talks, and above all, his zealous interest, made the first Retreat a profitable and memorable one.

Attentive Juniors listen to Father Bernott as he explains the day's lesson in Religion.

You wouldn't realize how many Catholic authors there are until "Catholic Press Month" is emphasized. Fred Belanger, Robert Cameron, Pauline Goryl, and Geraldine Begin.

Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., pioneering spirit in National Sodality Direction, poses with Catholic Central girls who attended the Summer School of Catholic Action last summer in Chicago. STANDING: Corinne McDermott, and Gail Sanders. SEATED: Frances Rowe and Dorothy Sidel.

Sister M. Norbert, O.P., explains the use of the Missal to the members of the Missal Club. STANDING: Lucy Lenseler, Nancy Mikesell, Kathryn Eddington, Catherine Miller, Margaret Fodrocy, Marilyn Beadle. SEATED: Sister M. Senior boys take a "cold breather" following the performance of an act of charity.

Winter Scenes at C. C. . . .

Time out to look at the first snowfall.

A winter wonderland provides a beautiful foreground for the new Catholic Central High School, especially for the Barclay Street entrance where the new flag adds color to its magnificence.

Winter's snow cannot prevent the progress of the new gym and cafeteria which will be ready for use next September. Underclassmen eagerly look forward to its completion.

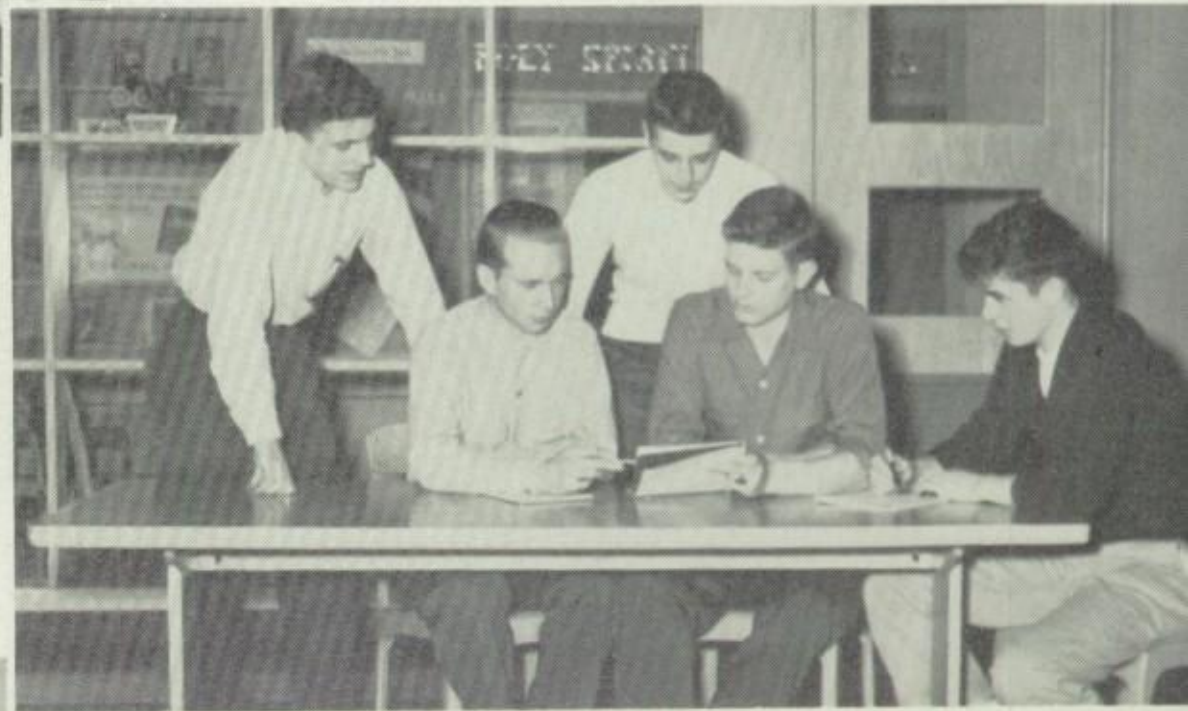

Scholastic Activities . . .

Every lesson learned, every scholastic activity well-performed sharpens the intellectual powers for a clearer vision of the Marian objective: "In your name resounding harmoniously in heaven, may they recognize that they are brothers, that the nations are members of one family upon which may there shine forth the sun of a universal peace."

Problems Settled . . .

Adjusting class schedules, while planning the homemaking class. Principal Father LaPres, students Joan Kulesza, Mary Jane Felcoski, and Miss Joan Koestner, instructor.

Officers of the Student Council making important decisions. STANDING: Louis Tish, treasurer; Bob Murray, president of Junior class; Craig Meier, vice-president; David Imonen, president and Thomas Geoghan, secretary.

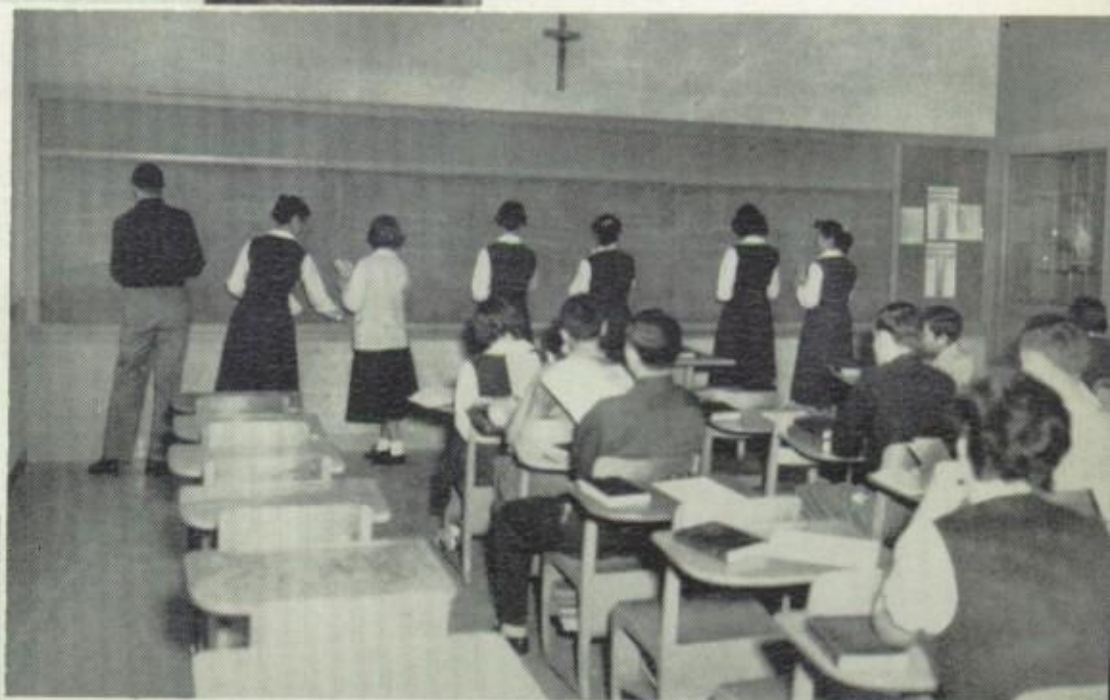

"All our problems are different," think Pat Majeski, William Uhor, Kenneth Welbes, and Sue Cavanaugh as they approach Father Gallagher in his office this morning.

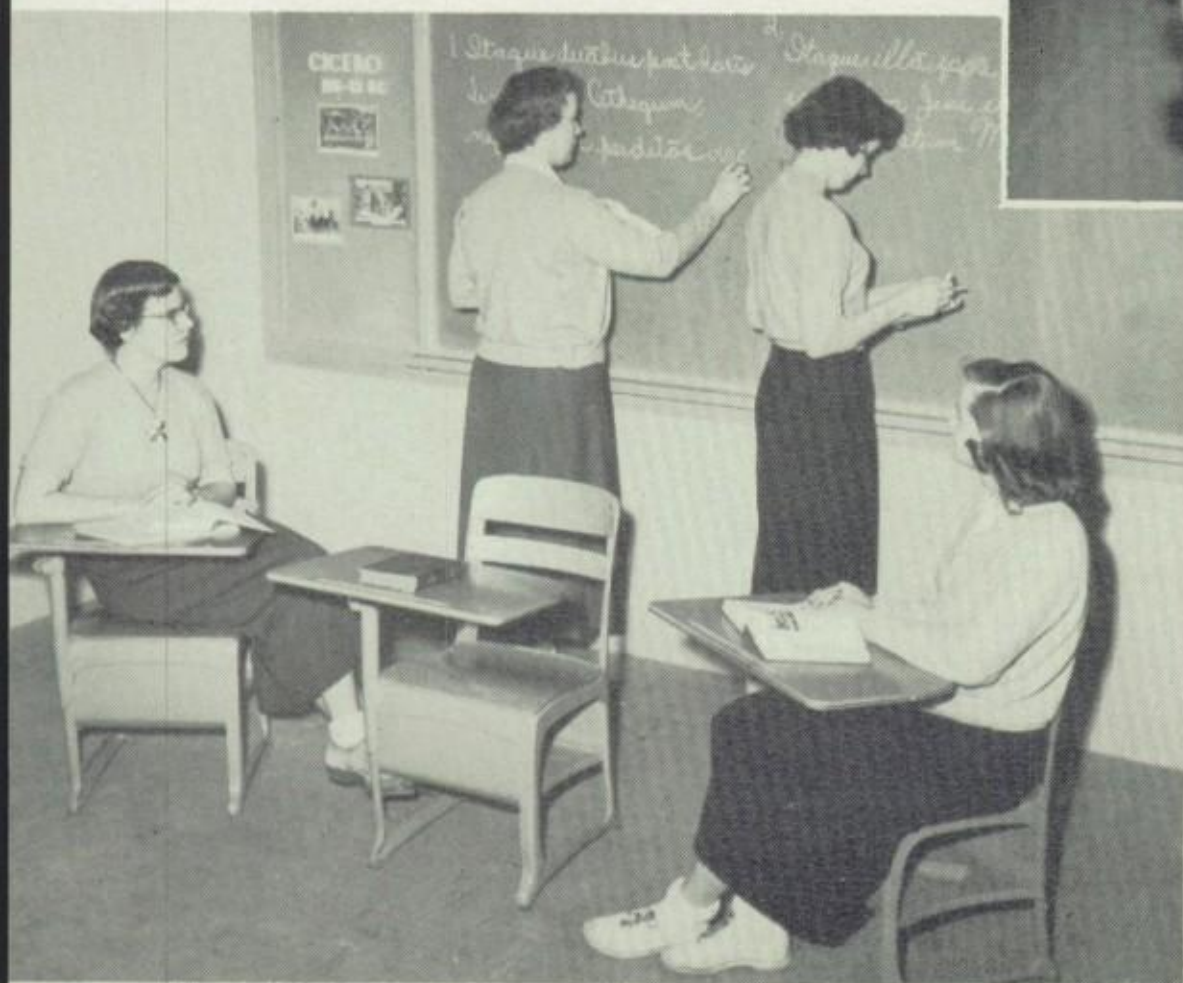

Languages . .

The second year Latin class are enthusiastic about the voice recorder. Operating, Carmel Sirianne, Pompey Thomas, and John Mulvihill.

"Oui, Oui," say the French students as members prove they write as well as speak French.

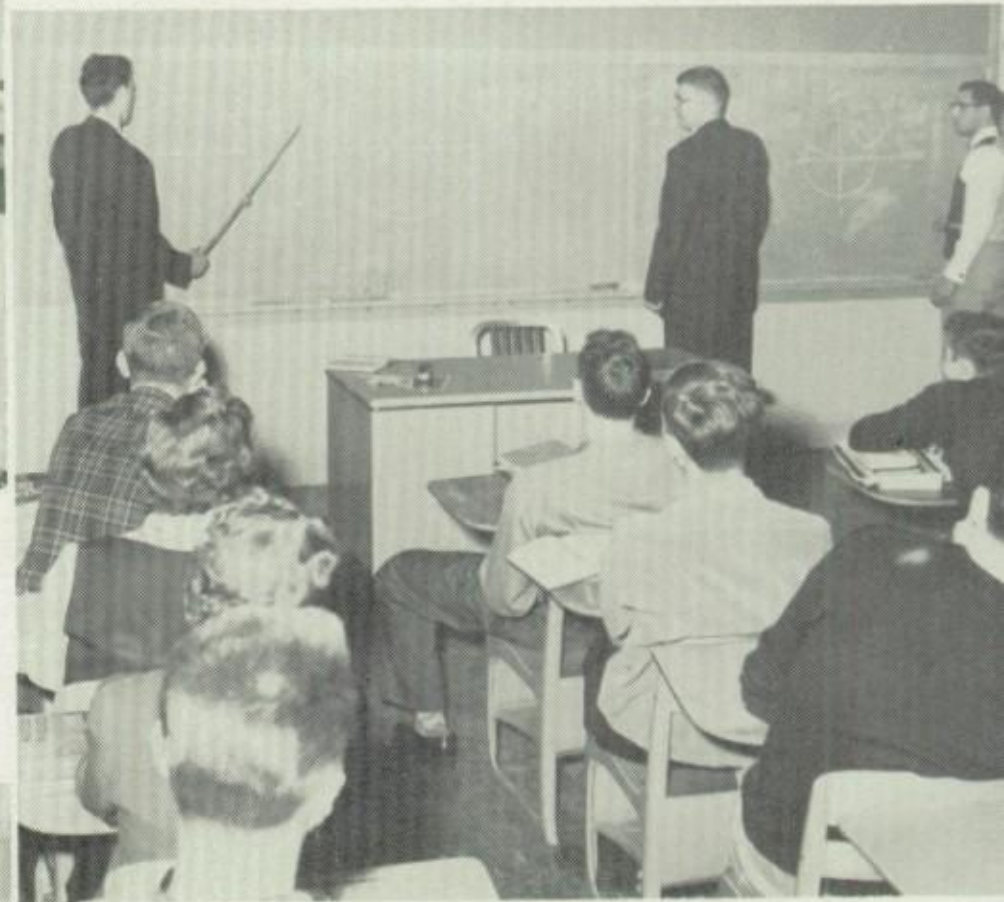

Cicero holds the spotlight in the third year Latin class for the four junior girls: Frances Rowe, Viola Ochs, Joan Smith and Ruth Boltze.

Natural Sciences . . .

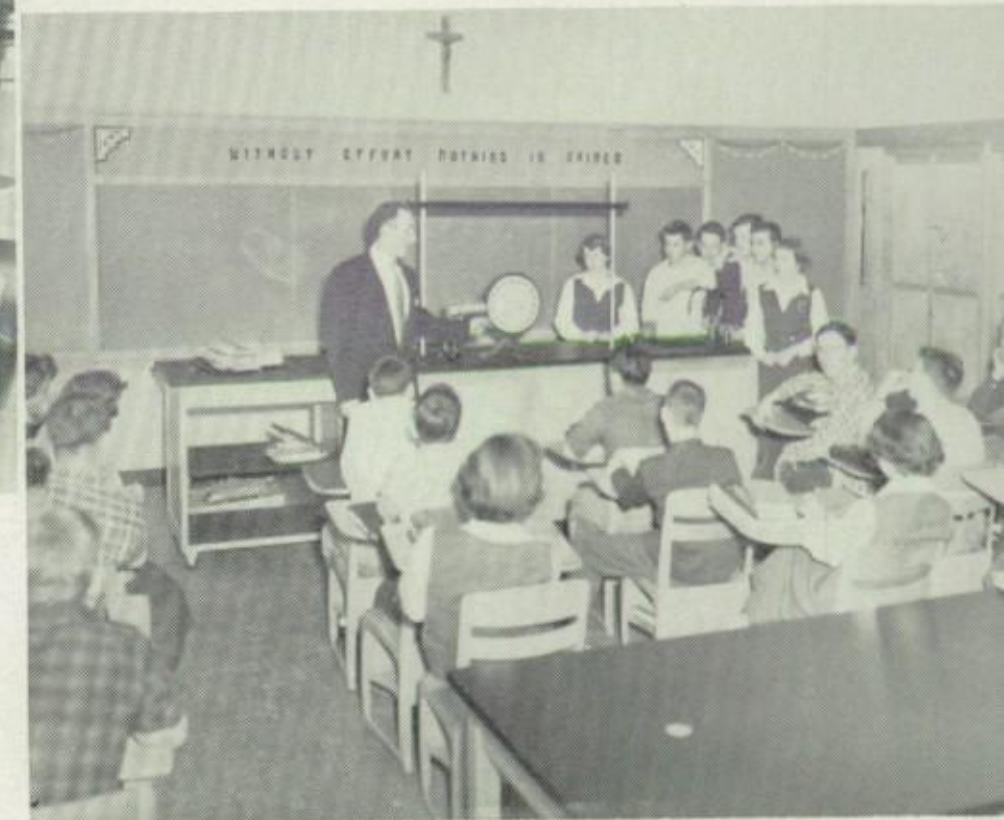

Mechanical Drawing is a favorite subject with Catholic Central boys.

"We agree, Rog," say the Trig Mathematicians.

Arts and Crafts is a popular class at Catholic Central.

Explaining the converging of light rays, Mr. Fader holds the attention of the interested boys and girls in General Science class.

Language Arts . . .

Catholic Central's Mary Louise Panyard wins first prize in the Voice of Democracy contest, sponsored by the Muskegon Junior Chamber of Commerce. Mary Louise competed against finalists from all local high schools.

"Merry Christmas, Father. This is a volume of essays and poems about Catholic Central, written for you in the senior English classes."

Members of an English XII class make final revisions of their part (Section V) of the class poem.

"This is where Hamlin Garland found the setting for many of his stories," explains Peggy Kane, while Bill McCarthy waits an opening for his explanation on the American Literature map.

Social Life . . .

Co-curricular Activities . . .

An activities program of co-curricular and athletic events — school parties, home get-togethers, banquets and proms — all glad hours with laughter and gaiety — all in accord with the Marian ideal:

"Make all men feel the attraction of Christian goodness."

Bells Ringing . .

Preparing the announcements for the winter prom, Silver Bells, are Ronald Chandonnet, Peggy Kane, Linda Corinti, Robert Murray (on ladder), Victor Perreault, Nicola Wheaton and Viola Ochs.

Silver Bells, the winter prom, in full swing at Shurfine Hall.

Between dances at the winter prom, Silver Bells.

"Yes, that's fine," say the decoration judges, Patricia Hughes, Adelaide Kaiser, Donna Cuti, Edward Paquin, Mary Jean Langlois, and Chester Zbojnowicz, as they pass their valued opinion on the decorators of the first Christmas tree.

Nicola Wheaton adds an exquisite touch to the Christmas spirit.

Festive Season . . .

Dressed up for New Year's Eve. Bob Coyne, Warren Grienemberger, and Dick VanderVeen.

David Imonen and Donahue Silvis were in a feminine mood New Year's Eve, as they left the home of Mary Ann Sumner, David's date. Also pictured is Mary Lou Doubrava, Donahue's date.

Society . . .

The barbecue and dance, held in St. Mary's Hall for the football players after the Detroit Catholic Central game in November, was given by Mr. George F. Liddle, City Manager.

Mick Young, football co-captain, presents Coach Corgan with a gift from the team at the Catholic Central football banquet.

"Who's in the King row now?" and how to get the opponent confused, is the sixty-four dollar question during lunch hour recreation.

"Everyone is Irish on St. Patrick's Day," says Delores Schmidt and Wayne Moseler, as they turn the English lyrics into Irish tunes for their classmates.

Yes, it's a real Hayride with everybody happy for they know their chaperon, Mr. Fox, will keep the going smooth.

Around the School . . .

A student's locker is a "safety box," especially at Catholic Central where combinations open the door.

Bright smiles to do a favor for a member of the faculty, too busy this particular day to go to the lunch room, but unwilling to miss Mrs. Teall's delicious menu, so Gerald Kulik gladly carries the tray.

"That's my milk!" This is the cry every noon when the boys gather to carry the milk back to the homerooms for the daily lunch period. Next year it will be different. Watch for the new cafeteria.

. . . and these are the ladies who keep our rooms nice and clean, Mrs. Geneva Obzut and Mrs. Theresa Vukits.

This is the way our driveways and sidewalks were kept cleared. The chief custodian, Mr. Ambrose Welbes, with his trusty Ford tractor managed this duty efficiently.

A TRIBUTE — to the initial athletes of Muskegon Catholic Central High School, who have performed with a quality that merited the praise of all. In football they have played beyond our highest expectations. We are especially indebted to them for establishing the school name as one held in high esteem in the annals of athletics. As a basketball team you were possessed of a fighting spirit for which you might very well be proud. May the teams that follow show the same fighting spirit and will-to-win that you so nobly initiated.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Mr. Corgan came to us from Petoskey where he had grand success as head football coach. "Mike" gained the praise of all with his coaching achievements this past year. We are looking forward to many more great seasons.

Good luck, coach.

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

Coach Walt Oberlin, previous to his arrival at Catholic, was graduated from Western Michigan College and Columbia University. He has under his belt 13 years of coaching experience. In coaching armed service and high school cage teams he holds an impressive record of 85 wins and 26 losses.

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL COACH

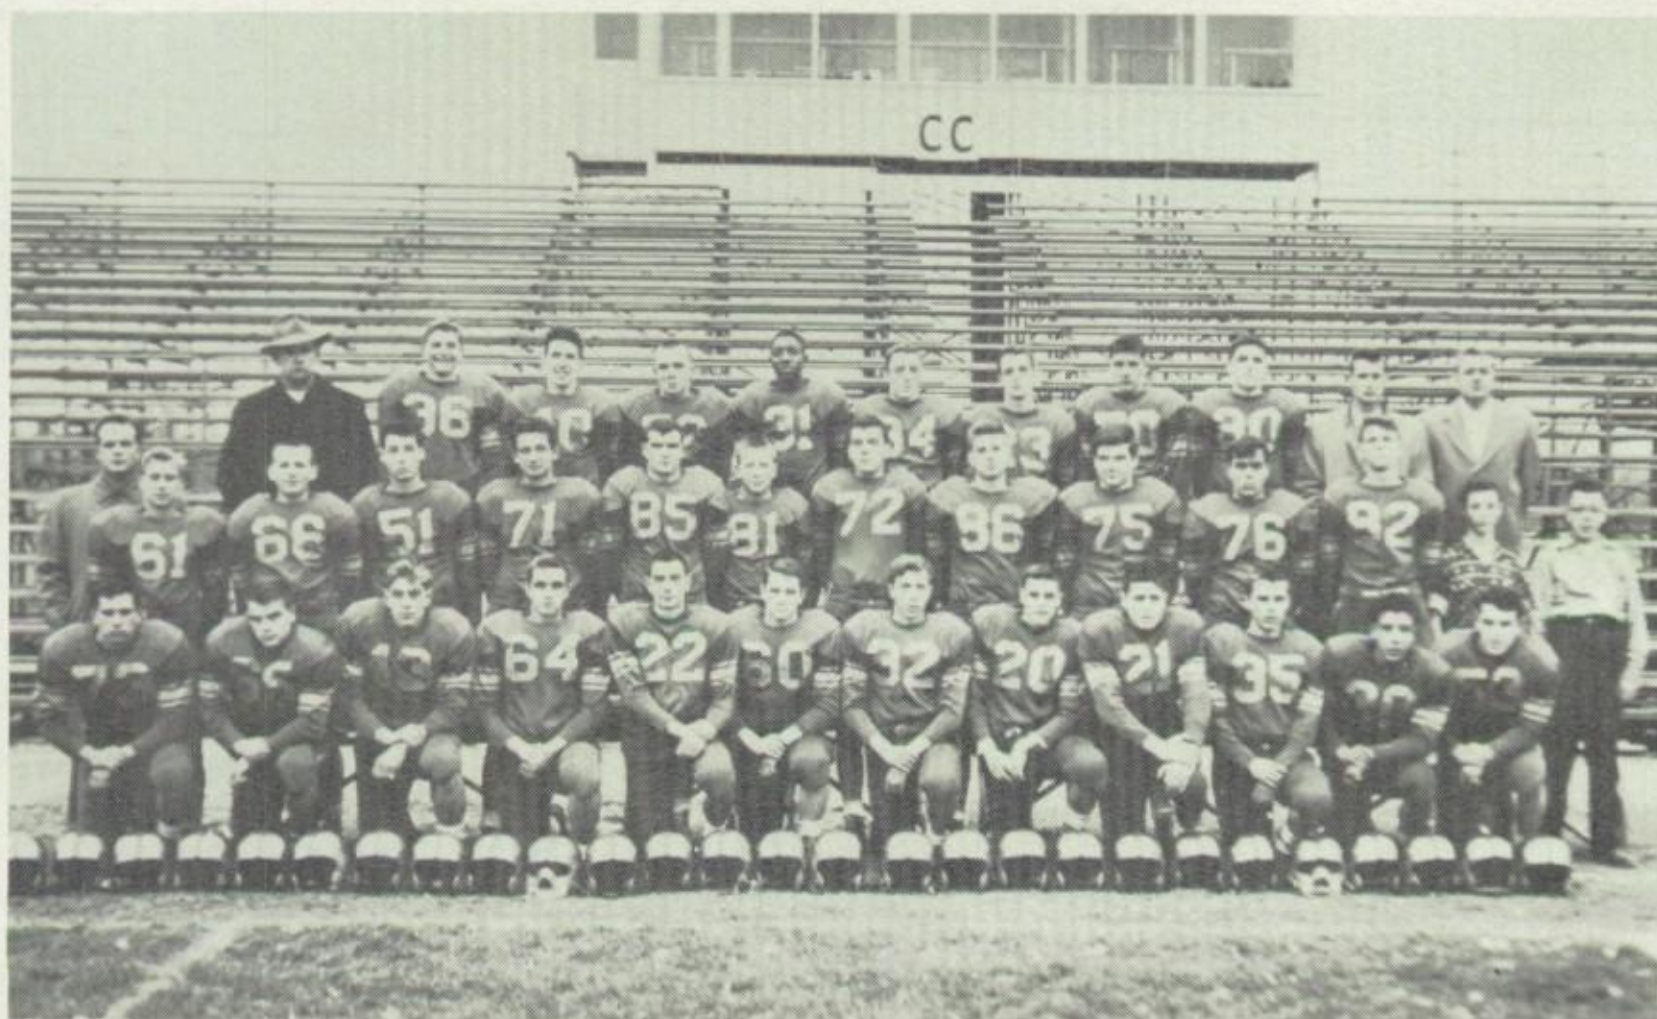

Waldo Keating is a graduate of Central Michigan College where he majored in physical education and was a most valuable assistant to Mr. Corgan as freshman coach.

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACH

Bud Norris is a teacher at Grand Haven High School and proved invaluable as assistant to Mr. Corgan during the past football campaign.

In Muskegon homes the clean blue gas flame does the cooking, keeps instant hot water on tap, operates the silent Servel refrigerator-freezer, consumes garbage and trash in the indoor gas incinerator, dries the laundry indoors, and maintains a supply of hot water for the automatic dish washer and laundry.

In Muskegon industry gas is used in numerous ways in annealing, core baking, flame hardening, heat treating, metal melting and paint baking of countless products.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST GRADUATING CLASS OF GREATER MUSKEGON
CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL:

We wish to extend our sincerest congratulations and best wishes to the first graduating class of the Greater Muskegon Catholic Central High School, in the year 1954.

The plans for your graduation this year were started in July 1944 at a meeting called by the Most Reverend Francis J. Haas, then Bishop of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, at the Occidental Hotel, at which all the pastors and lay representatives of each parish were present. There followed later in the year 1944, a fund raising campaign, and a second fund raising campaign in the year 1951. Several of the mothers and fathers of the graduates of this class gave considerable of their time and money to make these campaigns a success and, likewise, make the school the success that it has been during the first year of operation.

In the years to come, many of you will feel honored to remark that you were a member of the first graduation class of this very fine High School, the same as we frequently hear members of the first class of Catholic Central of Grand Rapids saying.

You are graduating from High School at a time when the world is looking for people who can assume responsibility and maintain themselves as individuals and retain the dignity of man as we believe it should be. It is our sincere wish that you be happy in whatever your future undertakings may be, whether it is in homemaking, commerce and industry, the professions or a religious vocation.

Sincerely,

Martin Mullally

The First Farewell . . .

Firsts are fascinating. Our firsts are especially so: First Catholic Central in Muskegon . . . first senior class . . . first Yearbook . . .

We, the first co-editors, aided by the generous cooperation of our staff members, have tried to capture in print the ideals and activities of our first year. Though we spent many happy, hectic days in assembling this material, we feel the pages of this Yearbook will speak for years to come.

We, the first co-editors, wish to thank sincerely the members of the faculty for the co-operation given us at all times. To Father LaPres, our Principal, we are especially indebted for his patience and kindness; to the priests, the lay, and the religious faculty — the Sisters of Mercy, the Dominicans, the Bernadines for their interest and prayers, we are deeply grateful; to our Patrons and Advertisers, we extend a vote of thanks.

In presenting this first annual, we hope we have fulfilled the dreams of many people who have helped to promote our success.
